

Dr. Paul Anthony Storer (1960-2015)

A memorial fund in Paul's name has been established at Western Washington University to support an annual talk by a scholar on the state of Canada-US economic relations and to support student participation in the annual Pacific Northwest Regional Economic Conference (PNREC). Both honor Paul's legacy. Please follow the instructions below to contribute.

Online Donations (Internet Explorer recommended)

Online donations can be made via following the link

<https://securelb.imodules.com/s/1710/campaign/index.aspx?sid=1710&gid=2&pgid=467&cid=1175>.

- Click 'Search for support area(s) of your choice' which will bring up a pop-up menu
- Scroll to the bottom and select 'Other fund not listed'
- Write the 'Paul Storer Memorial Fund' into the blank box on the main page

Checks

Checks can be made out to The Western Foundation and mailed to The Western Foundation, Old Main 430, 516 High Street, Bellingham, Washington 98225. It should be noted on the check or an accompanying note that the money is for the Paul Storer Memorial Fund.

Please direct questions to Laurie Trautman, Laurie.Trautman@wwu.edu, (360) 650-2642.

More information about Paul's life and contributions has been compiled by his family and is available at: <http://www.sigsfuneralservices.com/notices/Paul-Storer>.