Western Washington University is looking forward to hosting the 10th Annual Veni Vidi Ascendi bouldering competition. In order to provide everyone with ample climbing time and space, registration will be capped at 130. A wait list will be kept after the cap is reached in case of drop-outs. In order to accommodate non-NC3 competing students as well as community members we will also be saving 15 spots of the 130 available for this type of participant. If by the end of early registration on 3/29/17 these 15 spots are not filled, they will go to registrations on the wait list. Only 20 participants from each school are able to register if the athlete would like their scores to count for the NC3 climbing series.

Rules:

- Judges have final say on all rulings.
- A competitor must be established on the start holds before continuing.
- Competitors must match hands or show control on the finish hold.
- If there is a technical difficulty with a route (i.e. a hold spins or breaks) and climber falls due to the technical difficulty the attempt does not count against them. If they proceed past the difficulty and fall later on the route the fall counts against their score.
- Unsportsmanlike like conduct will not be tolerated. If a student is removed from the competition they are dropped from the NC3 and his or her school is deducted 75 points.
- If a climber uses a hold that is not on route they are required to step off the route and a fall is recorded.
- Competition officials reserve the right to bump competitors

House Rules:

- Each route has a 5-attempt limit. You must complete the route in 5-attempts for it to count in your scored routes.
- No use of non-taped surfaces or bolt holes, but flagging is permitted.
- Flash bonus is 10 points.
