Hospitality Resource Alliance

Promotes business practices that influence customers (WWU students) to make healthy and responsible choices about their drinking. Promotes the role of the hospitality industry in providing healthy settings for informal public life that is essential to the community. Works closely with the Liquor Control Board to develop voluntary better business practices.

Possible Projects: Establish "what works" roundtables to share effective ways to deal with problems (e.g., fake ID's, cutting customers off, disruptive behavior); recruit off-premise retailers into HRA; implement "support your server" campaign; partner with law enforcement to offer classes to high school and college students on the consequences of using fake and borrowed ID's.
