Affected by Sexual Violence, Harassment or Bullying?

If you have a concern regarding sexual violence (including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking), sexual or gender-based harassment, bullying, hazing or discrimination, you have resources and reporting options.

YOU CAN CALL OR TALK TO:

A leader or coach
of your summer conference, camp, or program

Guest Housing staff
on call (360) 389-2864 • or visit the front desk

Western’s Title IX Coordinator
Sue Guenter-Schlesinger • Sue.Guenter-Schlesinger@wwu.edu.
Old Main 345, (360) 650-3307 (voice) or 711 (WA Relay)

University Police
(360) 650-3911 (emergency) • 650-3555 (report)

Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault Services (DVSAS)
24-hour confidential help line
(360) 715-1563 or (877) 715-1563 • 1407 Commercial Street, Bellingham

For more information, visit:
Together Against Sexual Violence
wp.wwu.edu/sexualviolence

In compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Western does not tolerate sexual violence, sexual harassment or gender-based harassment. Western is committed to maintaining a respectful environment free from discrimination, bullying, hazing, harassment, and sexual violence. Western's policies on Preventing and Responding to Sex Discrimination, Including Sexual Misconduct and Ensuring Equal Opportunity & Prohibiting Discrimination & Retaliation apply to all individuals who use University facilities or participate in University programs.