OFFICIAL NOTICES:

❖FAIRHAVEN SCHOLARSHIPS FOR WINTER QUARTER FOR ACS AND LDJ

Each scholarship will be $1000 split between winter and spring quarter ($500 per quarter):

►American Cultural Studies Scholarship - Deadline November 30th, 5pm

This $1,000 one-time nonrenewable scholarship will be awarded Winter Quarter to a Fairhaven student addressing issues of race/ethnicity, social and cultural theory, class, gender, and/or sexual orientation in his or her concentration or American Cultural Studies major—and with a demonstrated interest in community service (through volunteerism, for example). This scholarship considers financial need. The award will be divided into $500 per academic quarter for Winter and Spring.

►Law, Diversity and Justice Scholarship - Deadline November 30th, 5pm

Two $1,000 one-time nonrenewable scholarships will be awarded Winter Quarter to Fairhaven students committed to social justice within the legal system. One scholarship will be awarded to a student who has filed an LDJ concentration; the other will be awarded to a student with a demonstrated interest in Law, Diversity and Justice. This scholarship considers financial need. Each award will be divided into $500 per academic quarter for Winter and Spring.

❖Western Alert Emergency Notification System Test

Test Date: Wednesday, November 18, 2009 at 09:45 a.m. About the Test: We will test the Western Alert Emergency Notification System by: 1. Sending sample emergency emails to every faculty, staff and student at Western; 2. Sending sample emergency text messages to cell phones of those persons who provided their number; and 3. Sounding the Big Ole steam whistle.

In an actual emergency, this sound announces that there is a severe emergency and people need to find information without delay through text messages, email, WWU's Emergency Information website, the WWU homepage or other means as they are developed. Websites for more information: emergency.wwu.edu/ or www.emd.wa.gov/preparedness/prep_index.shtml

❖VIDEO / MEDIA / AUDIO PRODUCERS

Fairhaven's Digital Outback, founded by Alumni Derrick Fargo, is a student-run podcast of video/audio stories from Fairhaven. We need a student to take over and sustain this project. A great opportunity for an ISP, or a group ISP! If interested, contact: Amy Keeling and/or Mark Miller in the Main Office.

EVENTS:

❖WORLD ISSUES FORUM

Thursday, November 12, Arntzen Hall 100, Noon-1:20pm, "A Woman Among Warlords: The Extraordinary Story of the Afghan Woman Who Dares to Speak Out", Malalai Joya, Afghan Woman

➔➔➔➔➔➔➔➔➔➔➔➔PAGE TWO➔➔➔➔➔➔➔➔

Activist and Parliamentarian. On a U.S. tour, Malalai Joya speaks of "Raising My Voice: The Extraordinary Story of the Afghan Woman Who Dares to Speak Out" (2009). Her book provides a true picture of young Afghans going through the occupation, the troubles of refugee camps and the feelings of these people towards those warlords who are once again ruling and not giving chance to the new generation to come forward and control their destiny.

❖FILM: The Corporal's Diary

Nov 12 (Thurs), 7-9 PM @ Viking Union Room 552, FREE. Co-sponsored with the Veteran's Outreach Center. This documentary tells the story of Jonathan Santos, who graduated from Sehome High School in Bellingham and then joined the military. At 22 years of age he was killed in Iraq after spending 38 days in the country. The documentary (92 minutes) is made up of his camera footage and excerpts from his diary. It is supplemented with stories from his mother, brother, and the one survivor from the IED explosion that took his life. Doris Kent, Jonathan's mother, and Patricia Boiko, the producer of the film, will introduce the film, speak after the film, and answer questions from the audience.

❖LAW & PUBLIC POLICY INFO FAIR

Explore your legal career options on Tues, November 17th 2009, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m, in the WWU Viking Union Multipurpose Room. Nearly 1/3 of the nationally accredited law schools will attend this event, and the scope of schools is broad. Washington State schools include Gonzaga, Seattle University, and the University of Washington (including two public policy programs: public affairs and policy studies). The western region includes schools from British Columbia, Oregon (3), Idaho, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, and California (13). There are 20 east coast region schools and nine mid-region schools. All 56 schools may be viewed (with website links) at: www.careers.wwu.edu/lawschinfofair_studentinfo2009.shtml. Sponsored by Career Services Center Legal Information Center & Center for Law, Diversity & Justice. For disability accommodation call (360) 650-3240

❖ AMY GOODMAN of "Democracy Now"

Tuesday, November 24th from 7-9:00pm in the PAC Main Stage. This event is FREE - however, tickets are required, and are available at the PAC Box Office either by stopping by in person or by calling them at 360.650.6146. Goodman is the first journalist to receive the Right Livelihood Award, widely known as the 'Alternative Nobel Prize' for "developing an innovative model of truly independent grassroots political journalism that brings to millions of people the alternative voices that are often excluded by the mainstream media." She is also one of the the first recipients, along with Salon.com blogger Glenn Greenwald, of the Park Center for Independent Media's Izzy Award, named for the great muckraking journalist I.F. Stone. For disability accommodations and additional information, please contact KUGS Program Director Sam Parker at 650.2995 or Civil Controversy Series Coordinator Jessica Sele at 650.2526.
