Dear Phasers:

It seems like only yesterday you were scrambling to complete program files and rafting the Methow River, futilely trying to get the faculty wet. Now you've either completed or are in the midst of your internship. Yes, you're nearing the home stretch, and that light at the end of the tunnel is not an onrushing train, but Phase 4, the final leg of enlightened enrichment (we include that term just in case your family is reading over your shoulder). Phase 4 is difficult to think about when you're in the middle of a great internship, a super summer job, or a wonderful adventure. Yet it's eventful for a number of reasons: a chance to learn more, graduation for many folks, a banquet in your honor, reflections on the past and expectations for the future, and, sadly, the last time many of us may see each other (though we hope that's not the case). Needless to say, we have high expectations for Phase 4. As with everything we've done, the success of Phase 4 will depend on all of us, so be ready with your presence, all the new things you've learned, a positive attitude, and a commitment to excellence.

You may have forgotten, but Charlie's responsibilities now include PEHR Department Chair, meaning he will be teaching part-time in the Recreation Program. So we had to look for another teacher. Guess who we were lucky enough to find? Hold on to your hats! Jim Moore will be partially un-retiring to teach part-time in the Phase this year!!! Jim is loving retirement, but is generously going to help us out this year and he's very excited to renew his relationship with your Phase. So be ready to welcome Jim back. (Also, both Jill and Charlie will be teaching a class outside the Phase: Jill teaches RECR 380 and Charlie teaches RECR 201).

Please read carefully the information on the other side of this sheet. Besides the class times, be sure to note important dates, such as the retreat at the beginning of the quarter and the banquet celebration at the end of the quarter. They're important events that everyone should plan on attending.

In closing, we hope you're having a great summer and we look forward to seeing you in the fall. If you have any concerns, questions, or just want to say hi, please feel free to get in touch.

Best wishes,

Jill, Keith, Randy, Katey, Jim and Charlie
