

Getting from the Amtrak/Greyhound Station to WWU

Whatcom Transportation Authority (WTA) operates 7 day a week bus service to/from the Fairhaven Transportation Center (FTC) which houses Amtrak and Greyhound. Look for the covered bus stop near the parking lot exit.

Weekdays

Take the 401 bus to the Downtown Bellingham Station, then transfer to any Blue Line route 14, 105, 107, 190 or 196 to get to WWU.

Evenings Monday – Saturday

Take the 105 bus from the FTC directly to the WWU campus. (the 401 bus also travels from the FTC to the Downtown Bellingham Station with connections to campus).

The last bus leaves the FTC at 10:20PM

All Day Sunday

Take the 105 bus from the FTC directly to the WWU campus. Or, Take the 401 bus from the FTC to the Downtown Bellingham Station, with connections to campus.

The last 105 bus leaves the FTC at 9:25PM

Getting from WWU to the Amtrak/Greyhound Station

Weekday

From campus take any bus going to the Downtown Bellingham Station (14, 105, 108, 190 or 197), then transfer to the 401 bus going to the FTC.

Evenings and all day Sunday

Take bus 105 from the VU straight to the FTC.

Visit www.ridewta.com for full bus schedules and times.

If you arrive at the FTC after bus service ends, or need to arrive at the FTC early in the morning, there are several Taxi services available.